Take a look at Wales

Don't leave Wales without seeing some of our many attractions – our mountains and moorlands, ancient castles and historic houses, centuries old cathedrals, craft shops and workshops, museums and galleries . . . to name but a few.

So why not call in at the Wales Tourist Board's stand at the Eisteddfod for information about our country, our heritage . . . even our traditional Welsh fare.

Staff there will be only too willing to answer your enquiries and to suggest places to visit, itineraries and routes for both groups and individuals alike.

Wales is beautiful

And Wales Gas help to keep it that way.

Every home in the country needs fuel for heating and cooking.

Fuel that they can depend on. A fuel like Natural Gas.

All of Wales has now been converted from town gas to clean,

Controllable Gas

-saves you money and the nation fuel.

fast, and efficient Natural Gas.

The fuel that's piped underground so that the natural beauty of Wales is left undisturbed.

The fuel that gives us the power to prosper without losing our natural heritage.
